

Grant Street Reach

Restoring Hope for a Brighter Tomorrow

Grant Street Reach (“Street Reach”), formerly known as Grant Avenue Street Reach, has been serving the Denver community for over 22 years. Operating primarily as a Soup Kitchen, Street Reach provides over 800 hot meals every Monday to its clients. In 2015 alone, Street Reached served over 40,000 meals to its patrons. Aside from food service, Street Reach provides food (canned goods, fresh vegetables, and fruit), clothing, blankets, toiletries, diapers, and baby formula to its clients.

Mission Statement

To feed and care for the less fortunate regardless of circumstances, with dignity and without judgement.

Executive Directors

Kathleen Gomendi and Ian Saunders have been actively engaged in fulfilling Street Reach's mission to improve the lives of others for the past 22 and 11 years respectively.

Volunteers

As a “100% Volunteer-Run Program”, we rely heavily on the support of volunteers and truly appreciate your willingness to help.

Our Volunteers Make a Difference

We are making a difference in the lives of others
“One Meal at a Time”.

Your Help is Needed

Our volunteer opportunities are limited to Mondays, including holidays that fall on Mondays. Hours of operation are from 8am to 7pm on Mondays.

You Can Help

Street Reach provides meals at no cost to its clients and it is sustained by committed and compassionate volunteers and also, by the generous contributions of donors.

Patrons

We are committed to making a difference in the lives of our clients and restoring hope by providing hot nutritious meals as well as other essential necessities to those in need within the community.

We Serve Families with Children

We strive to help families in need and to restore hope for a brighter tomorrow.

Everyone is Welcome

We strive to feed and assist those in need regardless of their particular circumstance.

Our Patrons Thank You

Without the help of Grant Street Reach, many would be left hungry. Grant Street Reach Soup Kitchen is a place where our patrons can find a hot nutritious meal and start their week off right.

Thank You For Your Support!
